Massachusetts Psychosis Access and Triage Hub

A referral and consultation service for early psychosis

WHEN TO CALL M-PATH

If you, your family member, friend, or client is having difficulties due
to any of the following:

- Recent diagnosis of psychosis or schizophrenia.
- Feeling like your mind is playing tricks on you.
- Seeing or hearing things others do not.
- Worrying that others may be out to harm you.
- Worrying about troubling beliefs.
- Recently isolating from family and friends.

WHO WE CAN HELP

M-PATH can help youth, young adults, family members, and professionals who are concerned about early psychosis.

HOW WE CAN HELP

M-PATH can help connect you, your family member, or your client to specialized psychosis treatment. We can provide support, information, and resources to individuals and families, as well as ongoing consultation with providers.

WHY WE CAN HELP

Psychosis is complicated and navigating the mental health care system can be challenging. We can help you figure out what kind of support might be most helpful for you right now.

M-PATH is a program of the Brookline Center for Community Mental Health and is funded by the Massachusetts Department of Mental Health and other private foundations; this means that there is no cost to you.
